MHSCCA Mission Statement

Formed in January 2002, the Maryland High School Cheerleading Coaches Association (MHSCCA) is a committee of coaches from across the state of Maryland. MHSCCA's goal is to advance the education of coaches and cheerleaders throughout the state of Maryland by promoting the highest professional standards for coaching and safety regulations for cheerleading.

MHSCCA's mission is to promote participation and sportsmanship in order to develop good citizens through cheerleading. This provides equitable opportunities, positive recognition and learning experiences to everyone involved, while maximizing the achievement of educational goals.
